The Collector of South Kanara reports that as it has not been found possible to spare a peon from the permanent - establishment, he has in anticipation of sanction employed a peon from 15th May 1924 to work under the Special Revenue Inspector sanctioned for the Mangalore Taluk in G.O. No. Mis. 780 Revenue, dated the 24th May 1924. The Board recommends that a peon on Rs. 12 plus a fixed travelling allowance of Rs. 9 may be - sanctioned from 15th May 1924 to 30th June 1924 when the sanction accorded for the employment of the Special Revenue Inspector will expire and requests that the Collector's action in having employed the peon in anticipation of sanction may be approved.

2. The cost can be met from the provision made in the budget estimates under "22 E - General Administration - District Administration - Taluk establishments - Establishment to deal with applications for loans".
